Why should I join a chapter?

Make yourself heard

MOAA's chapters provide critical grass-roots support for MOAA's national legislative agenda. Our earned entitlements are under attack and MOAA is in the fight to preserve them. Chapter members let their legislators know what's on their minds and open doors for MOAA's legislative team in Washington, D.C.

In these difficult times, MOAA members need to stick together and our chapters are the best way we know to accomplish this.

Giving back to the community

Chapter members are MOAA's ambassadors in their communities, supporting countless programs that make a difference in the lives of others. These members continue their "officership" service and are giving back in the truest sense.

Value added to members' lives

MOAA chapters sponsor interesting programs and opportunities to interact with civic, political, military and business leaders on issues important to members.

Networking with fellow officers

Chapters include second career members in the work force and retired servicemembers who have contacts in their communities that can be valuable to transitioning officers.

Stay informed

Chapter newsletters, websites, and meetings provide you the latest information on local, state, and national issues and changes to military and veteran benefits.

The chapter holds a general membership event bimonthly. Annual awards luncheon at McKellar's Lodge

Chapter members' donations ensured the Global War on Terrorism monument was built in Fayetteville's Freedom Memorial Park

Influencing state legislation

The N. C. Council of Chapters, which unites all of the chapters, lobbies our state legislature to pass laws beneficial to military members, veterans and their families, such as exempting military retired pay from state income tax or increasing funding for state-run veteran programs.

Camaraderie with a purpose

MOAA chapters unite active duty, former, and retired officers from every branch of service, including National Guard and Reserve, as well as surviving spouses. These centers of camaraderie not only give you a chance to connect with other members with similar backgrounds and interest, but to also develop close and lasting friendships.
